September 2010

Program for September 15, 2010

Our new year begins with speaker Elizabeth Dillinger. Her talk is titled “Quilts and Inspiration”

Elizabeth’s thread painting and freestyle quilting are done on various domestic sewing machines.

Elizabeth’s quilts become very detailed with thread and adornments striving for texture and dimension. Her goal is to give the viewer the feeling that they are standing in the scene not just looking at it. Elizabeth’s quilts have won Awards of Excellence and Viewers Choice in Canada. She has won several awards in the United States including 1st place at the International Quit Festival, the largest annual quilt show in the world. Elizabeth has been featured in Quilters Newsletter, Quilt-maker and is a regular featured artist in A Needle Pulling Thread, a Canadian magazine.

President’s Message

Was it an elephant, or a bee, or even bouquet of flowers? I hope whatever you saw in the clouds took you back to a time when life was simple. I know I enjoyed taking time to look up at the sky. The hot lazy hazy days of summer are quickly coming to an end. Take time as often as you can to enjoy the clouds or stars. It doesn’t matter what season it is... just do it!

Meeting Checklist

- Your nametag/lanyard
- Show and Tell
- Smile/Memory/Alzheimer Quilts
- Zehrs tapes
- Books to donate to the Library
- Raffle Quilt Block

The program committee has worked hard to provide us with another wonderful year of guest speakers and workshops. Take advantage of the little extras that come your way. It may be a monthly exchange block, a mystery quilt or a chance to make a Smile quilt, Memory quilt or a quilt for any of the other groups the Guild supports. Take a chance and meet new people at workshops. Loving friendships are sure to develop.

Most quilters I know enjoy chocolate. I think this year we should go over the 'Ten Rules of Chocolates'. Each month you will receive a new rule. Go ahead....eat and enjoy....

Rule 1 - If you get melted chocolate all over your hands, you're eating it too slowly.

I'm looking forward to seeing each of you at our September meeting.

Doreen

P.S.

I always eat my chocolate nice and slow...it's finger licking good!

Quilters Storytelling Event

The Friends of the Waterloo Region Museum, in partnership with The Story Barn in Baden, presents an historical storytelling series in the theatre at the new Waterloo Region Museum starting September 21.

First in the monthly series is Piecing Together Canada's History Through Quilts by Pauline Grondin, a quilter and an historical re-enactor, singer and storyteller. Quilters will delight in Pauline's stories from the earliest days of quilt making to the present.

Complementing Pauline's presentation will be a slide show of quilts from the museum's collection and a display of quilts.

The storytelling session starts at 7:30 pm and will be hosted by storyteller Mary-Eileen McClear, founder of The Story Barn in Baden.

Admission is $15, $12 for seniors and students, $75 for the series of 6 events.

Tickets are available through the Waterloo Region Museum at (519) 748-1914. The museum is located at 10 Huron Road in Kitchener.

2011 Quilt Show

The next quilt show is still a year away. However there is much to be done.

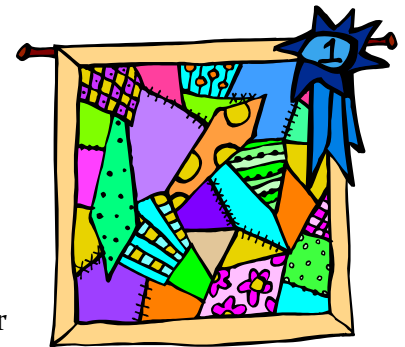

Remember to bring your finished blocks for the raffle quilt to the September guild meeting. Bev Bechthold and others are waiting to put the beautiful squares together. The ones we've seen so far look amazing.

The magnet making has begun. See Jan Hember at the meetings for magnet tape, to bring her fabrics, or to help make the magnets. We'll need lots to give out to other guilds and stores as great advertising.

As you present your Show and Tell items during the year, please think about entering your finished projects in the Show. There will be a number of categories, one of which is sure to fit your needs and interests. We'll be looking for large, medium and small quilts, as well as mini quilts, fashion wear, table decor, whatever you are quilting. This is an opportunity to share your talents and vision, to showcase your creativity and interests. Please keep in mind that the final date for submissions will be adhered to so that the hand-book, placement of quilts, etc, can be accomplished without excess stress.

We will be having a boutique again so please think about making something for the table. It was a very successful part of our last Show.

We now have 4 suggestions for the raffle quilt charity and by November or January you will hear about these worthy causes.

As the year progresses we will be asking for volunteers, giving you specific guidelines for entries, as well as keeping you informed of the progress toward a fun and successful Quilt Show.

The Quilt Show dates are September 29 and 30, and October 1 2011. We hope you'll help us make this a great Show.

Workshop with Elaine Quehl

Due to popular request, Elaine Quehl, one of our favourite quilting teachers, is teaching a workshop on Saturday, October 16, 2010 in Mannheim. She will be presenting, "Machine Quilting: Beyond Stippling Part 1". Unfortunately, there is only one sign up date before the workshop and that will be at our September meeting. The cost is $40.00.

Greetings from your Librarians!!

Welcome back, we hope that you had a super summer and are all geared up for another fun year of Guild meetings and library lending. As your new librarians, we wanted to remind you of some of the guidelines for utilizing our Guild library.

1. Please remember that the library is not available until the meeting rooms have been opened by a member of the executive. While we do need to arrive earlier than members to set up, we ask that you refrain from coming into the library until the “doors open” time of the meeting. If your library volunteers are not present that is a good sign that the library is not yet open.
2. The library is only open before the meetings begin, please remember that the library area is not available to members once the afternoon meeting has begun. Please make sure that you visit the library before the meeting begins so that you are not disappointed.
3. There is a 3 book maximum that can be taken out at any time; this can include only 1 new book.
4. Overdue fees are $1 per month per book.

A special thank you to all who came out and helped with the inventory in June, it was much easier with more people and we were able to complete the inventory by 8:30 pm! We did have a large number of books missing. If you can check at home for these books and bring any that you may have forgotten to return to the September meeting we would be very grateful.. Local Arts Showcase

Waterloo Community Arts Centre will be participating as a venue for the Culture Days weekend. Culture Days is a national initiative, over one weekend (September 24 - 26) that encourages artists and arts organizations to open up their work and venues to the public, to build awareness of the arts and to inspire audience development.

We have decided to hold a Local Arts Showcase on Saturday September 25 from 10am to 4pm.

This will look like an indoor exhibition and art market. I am encouraging as many of our members as possible to participate. We will provide tables and chairs which we will set up on the main and second floors so you can set up a display of your works. Everything will be provided for you at no cost. You just have to coordinate bringing your artworks, a table cloth and any promotional material you may have.

While Culture Days events must be free to the public, you are encouraged to treat this as an art market venue. If a community member wants to purchase your work, go for it! If you wish to run an art-making activity for our visitors, you are free to do so. We are trying to coordinate a children's activity in the afternoon.

To help draw in the people, I am coordinating live music. Because we are a heritage venue and because the traditional arts are so important to our heritage, I have invited the KW Weavers & Spinners, KW Knitters and quilting guilds to join us to do demonstrations and exhibit their works too.

We will provide free refreshments for the public and for you. This is also a great opportunity for you to promote any upcoming shows you might be in. If you are affiliated with any other arts organizations, festivals or galleries, I welcome these promotions as well!

It's going to be a fun day at the Button Factory where we can share our accomplishments with each other, promote ourselves and be inspired to continue working in the arts! Please join me in representing the Button Factory and everything we have to offer!
